7 I. INTRODUCTION

8 1.1 Red Lion brings this action against Defendants for their knowing, 9 willful, and intentional violations of Red Lion’s intellectual property and for 10 failing to perform contractual obligations with respect to that intellectual property.
 11 As further detailed below, Defendants have improperly used and continue to use in 12 commerce various federally registered trademarks owned by Red Lion.
 13 Defendants’ commercial uses are without authorization, license or permission, and 14 are in direct contravention of written agreements between the parties. Defendants’ 15 commercial uses of Red Lion’s registered marks are also blatant violations of 16 Sections 32 and 43(a) of the Lanham Act. As a result, Red Lion seeks injunctive 17 and monetary relief against Defendants for their deliberate infringement of Red 18 Lion’s intellectual property.

II. PARTIES

2 2.1 Plaintiff Red Lion Hotels Franchising, Inc. is a corporation in good 3 standing organized under the laws of the State of Washington. Red Lion's 15 U.S.C. § 1367 because those claims arise out of the same set of facts and 16 circumstances as the Lanham Act claims.

17 3.3 This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants because they 18 purposefully and intentionally directed communications and other conduct toward 19 Red Lion's corporate headquarters in Spokane, and because their collective and

 7 INTENTIONAL CONDUCT

8 A. Red Lion Hotels and Trademarks

9 4.1 Red Lion's history can be traced back to 1937, when Red Lion Hotels 10 Inc. was founded. Since then, and through significant time, effort, and expense, 11 consumers have come to recognize the Red Lion brand as an indicator of quality 12 hospitality services. This brand is currently associated with hotels throughout the 13 United States and across the world.

14 4.2 Today, Red Lion continues to serve its guests and patrons by 15 providing hospitality services including such things as accommodations, restaurant 16 and bar entertainment venues, meeting spaces, conferencing facilities and related 17 services.

18 4.3 Red Lion's services and facilities are offered under recognizable 19 brands, such as "Red Lion Hotel" and "Red Lion Inn & Suites."

1 4.4 To protect the goodwill it has fostered over several decades, Red Lion 2 has registered numerous marks relating to its hospitality services (collectively, the 3 “Red Lion Marks”).

4 4.5 Red Lion owns several valid and enforceable federal trademark 5 registrations for the Red Lion Marks, including U.S. Trademark Registration 6 Nos. 4,595,255, 4,933,184, 4,933,183, 3,583,032, 3,583,031, 1,095,529, 1,915,645
 7 and 1,485,662 (hereinafter the “Red Lion Registrations”). True and correct copies 8 of the Red Lion Registrations are attached hereto as Exhibit A. The Red Lion 9 Registrations are as follows:

8 B. Licensing Agreements with Defendants

9 Denver Franchise License Agreement with Tower Hospitality

10 4.6 In 2012, Defendant Tower Hospitality (whose sole members are 11 Defendants Ghazanfar Khan, Zulfiqar Khan, and Mohammad Tafail Khan)
 12 expressed to Red Lion an interest in operating a property at 7010 Tower Road, 13 Denver, Colorado 80249 (the “Denver Property”) as a Red Lion franchisee.

14 4.7 Red Lion and Tower Hospitality executed a Franchise License
 15 Agreement (the “Denver Agreement”) in September 2012 granting Tower 16 Hospitality a non-exclusive license to use the Red Lion Marks. A true and correct 17 copy of the Denver Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit B.¹

19 1 Certain confidential and proprietary information has been redacted from the Denver Agreement.

1 4.8 Tower Hospitality's licensed use of the Red Lion Marks was dictated 2 by the terms and conditions of the Denver Agreement.

3 4.9 The Denver Agreement explicitly conditioned Tower Hospitality's
4 use of the Red Lion Marks upon Tower Hospitality's complete and timely payment 5 of all dues and fees to Red Lion.

6 4.10 If dues and fees were not paid according to the terms of the Denver 7 Agreement, Tower Hospitality would be in default, and Red Lion had the 8 contractual right to terminate the Denver Agreement and withdraw Tower 9 Hospitality's licenses to use the Red Lion Marks.

10 4.11 In the event of termination, Tower Hospitality would be required to 11 cease holding itself out to the public as a Red Lion hotel, and would be required to 12 immediately cease any and all commercial use of the Red Lion Marks.

13 4.12 A true and correct copy of the Denver Agreement's provision 14 requiring the immediate cessation of commercial use of the Red Lion Marks is set 15 forth below:

17

18

19

1 d. De-identification of Hotel Upon Termination. Upon expiration or termination of this 2 Agreement for any reason, you will immediately stop holding yourself out to the public as a 3 System hotel, and will take whatever action is necessary to assure that no use is made of any 4 part of the System (including the Marks or any individual feature of any of the Marks) all forms of 5 advertising and other indicia of operation as a System hotel), and discontinue use of all 6 distinguishing indicia of System hotels, including such indicia on exterior and interior signs, 7 stationery, operating equipment and supplies, Internet sites, brochures and other promotional 8 material at or in connection with the Hotel or otherwise. You will return to us the Manual and all 9 other proprietary materials, remove all distinctive System features of the Hotel, including the 10 primary freestanding sign down to the structural steel, and take all other actions ("De-11 identification Actions") required to preclude any possibility of confusion on the part of the public 12 that the Hotel is still using all or any part of the System or is otherwise holding itself out to the 13 public as a System hotel, including ceasing participation in any System programs and payment 14 of any amounts owing in connection with participation in such System programs as required 15 under the then existing rules of any such System program. If within thirty (30) days after the 16 termination or expiration of this Agreement, you fail to comply with this section, we and our 17 agents, at your expense, may enter the premises of the Hotel to perform the De-identification 18 Actions without being deemed guilty of or liable for trespass or any other tort, and make or 19 cause to be made such changes at your expense. You will pay all such expenses that we incur 20 upon demand. If you fail to take all De-identification Actions, we and/or the Entities will be entitled to recover all losses, costs, expenses and damages caused by that failure. We and/or the Entities will also be entitled to relief by injunction, and any other right or remedy at law or in equity to enforce our rights under this Agreement.

10
 11 4.13 Defendants Ghazanfar Khan, Zulfiqar Khan, and Mohammad Tafail
 12 Khan (collectively, the "Khans") each personally guaranteed Tower Hospitality's 13 payment of fees and dues as well as its performance of all other contractual 14 obligations under the Denver Agreement. A true and correct copy of the Khans' 15 personal guarantee is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

16 Ft. Collins Franchise License Agreement with Khan/Sleep

17 4.14 In 2014, Defendant Khan/Sleep (whose sole members are also 18 Defendants Ghazanfar Khan, Zulfiqar Khan, and Mohammad Tafail Khan)
 19 expressed to Red Lion an interest in operating a property at 3808 East Mulberry

1 Street, Fort Collins, Colorado 80524 (the “Ft. Collins Property”) as a Red Lion 2 franchisee.

3 4.15 Red Lion and Khan/Sleep executed a Franchise License Agreement 4 (the “Ft. Collins Agreement”) in December 2014 granting Khan/Sleep a non-5 exclusive license to use the Red Lion Marks according to the terms and conditions 6 of the Ft. Collins Agreement. A true and correct copy of the Ft. Collins Agreement 7 is attached hereto as Exhibit D.²

8 4.16 The Denver Agreement and Ft. Collins Agreement both contained 9 substantially similar terms, and Khan/Sleep’s use of the Red Lion Marks under the 10 Ft. Collins Agreement was explicitly contingent upon its payment of dues and fees 11 to Red Lion.

12 4.17 If Khan/Sleep failed to pay its dues and fees according to the 13 Ft. Collins Agreement, it would be in default, whereby Red Lion had a right to 14 terminate the agreement and withdraw Khan/Sleep’s license to use the Red Lion 15 Marks.

16 4.18 Once again, termination would require Khan/Sleep to cease holding 17 itself out to the public as a Red Lion hotel, and Khan/Sleep would be required to 18 immediately stop any and all commercial use of the Red Lion Marks.

19 ²Certain confidential and proprietary information has been redacted from the Ft. Collins Agreement.

1 4.19 A true and correct copy of the Ft. Collins Agreement provision 2 requiring the immediate cessation of commercial use of the Red Lion Marks is 3 below:

4 d. De-identification of Hotel Upon Termination. Upon expiration or termination of this 5 Agreement for any reason, you will immediately stop holding yourself out to the public as a Licensed 6 Brand hotel, and will take whatever action is necessary to assure that no use is made of any part of the 7 System (including the Licensed Brand or any individual feature of any of the System or Network) all forms 8 of advertising and other indicia of operation as a Licensed Brand hotel), and discontinue use of all 9 distinguishing indicia of Licensed Brand hotels, including such indicia on exterior and interior signs, 10 stationery, operating equipment and supplies, Internet sites, brochures and other promotional material at 11 or in connection with the Hotel, System, Network or otherwise. You will return to us the Manual and all 12 other proprietary materials, remove all distinctive System and Network features of the Hotel, including the 13 primary freestanding sign (if applicable) down to the structural steel, and take all other actions ("De-14 identification Actions") required to preclude any possibility of confusion on the part of the public that the 15 Hotel is still using all or any part of the System or is otherwise holding itself out to the public as a 16 Licensed Brand hotel, including ceasing participation in any System programs and payment of any 17 amounts owing in connection with participation in such System programs as required under the then 18 existing rules of any such System program. If within thirty (30) days after the termination or expiration of 19 this Agreement, you fail to comply with this section, we and our agents, at your expense, may enter the 20 premises of the Hotel to perform the De-identification Actions without being deemed guilty of or liable for trespass or any other tort, and make or cause to be made such changes at your expense. You will pay all such expenses that we incur upon demand. If you fail to take all De-identification Actions, we and/or the Entities will be entitled to recover all losses, costs, expenses and damages caused by that failure. We and/or the Entities will also be entitled to relief by injunction, and any other right or remedy at law or in equity to enforce our rights under this Agreement.

1 4.20 Defendants Ghazanfar Khan, Zulfiqar Khan, and Mohammad Tafail
 2 Khan each personally guaranteed Khan/Sleep's payment of fees and dues as well 3 as its performance of all other contractual obligations under the Ft. Collins 4 Agreement. A true and correct copy of the Khans' personal guarantee is attached 5 hereto as Exhibit E.

6 C. Breach and Termination of the Denver and Ft. Collins Agreements

7 4.21 Defendants operated the Denver Property and the Ft. Collins Property

1 as franchisees, and directed payments of fees and dues to Red Lion for a time.

2 4.22 In 2015, Defendants began to miss payments of fees and dues owed to 3 Red Lion.

4 4.23 By 2017, Tower Hospitality had accrued an outstanding balance of 5 over $150,000 in unpaid dues and fees under the Denver Agreement.

6 4.24 By 2017, Khan/Sleep had accrued an outstanding balance of over 7 $100,000 in unpaid dues and fees under the Ft. Collins Agreement.

8 4.25 As a result of Tower Hospitality's and Khan/Sleep's failures to pay 9 dues and their inability to meet their financial obligations under their respective 10 agreements, Red Lion terminated both the Denver Agreement and the Ft. Collins 11 Agreement on January 5, 2017. A true and correct copy of the Denver Agreement 12 termination letter is attached hereto as Exhibit F and a true and correct copy of the 13 Ft. Collins Agreement termination letter is attached hereto as Exhibit G.³

14 4.26 The Denver Agreement and the Ft. Collins Agreement required Tower 15 Hospitality and Khan/Sleep, respectively, to cease all commercial use of the Red 16 Lion Marks as described above.

17 4.27 After the termination of the Denver Agreement and the Ft. Collins 18 Agreement on January 5, 2017, Defendants knew that they no longer had 19 ³Certain confidential and proprietary information has been redacted from the termination letters.

1 authorization, license, or permission to use the Red Lion Marks.

2 4.28 In addition to the contractual “de-identification” provisions describing 3 the measures Defendants must take to remove Red Lion indicia, Red Lion’s 4 termination letters set forth a specific “Checklist” of items that Defendants were 5 required to immediately stop using.

6 D. Willful and Intentional Infringement of Red Lion Marks at the Denver Property

 8 4.29 Defendants continued to operate commercial hotels open to the public 9 at the Denver Property and the Ft. Collins Property.

10 4.30 Despite Defendants’ breach of the Denver Agreement and the Ft.
 11 Collins Agreement and the subsequent terminations of those agreements, 12 Defendants have continued to use the Red Lion Marks at both the Denver Property 13 and the Ft. Collins Property.

14 4.31 Tower Hospitality continues to operate the Denver Property as if it is 15 a Red Lion licensed hotel.

16 4.32 Neither Tower Hospitality nor the Khans have removed the large and 17 illuminated exterior signs on the Denver Property’s facade that bear a reproduction 18 of the RED LION INN & SUITES mark, Registration No. 4,595,255.

19 4.33 Below are true and correct copies of photographs of the exterior

1 signage on the Denver Property taken on February 28, 2017:

10 4.34 These exterior signs are readily visible to guests of the Denver 11 Property, guests of neighboring hotels, and the public who can see the signs from 12 the nearby gas station, highway, and interstate leading to Denver International 13 Airport.

14 4.35 Tower Hospitality and the Khans have also failed to remove interior 15 signs, stationary, printed material, supplies, brochures, and operating equipment 16 bearing the Red Lion Marks.

17 4.36 Additionally, Tower Hospitality and the Khans utilize a shuttle-bus 18 with prominent displays of the Red Lion Marks. A true and correct photograph 19 taken on February 28, 2017 and depicting the shuttle bus is below:

4.37 To a customer or member of the public, the Denver Property appears to be a Red Lion property, or at least that of a selected licensee, but in reality the Denver Property is a rogue franchisee, holding itself out as a Red Lion property when, in fact, it is not.

E. Willful and Intentional Infringement of Red Lion Marks at the Ft. Collins Property

4.38 Khan/Sleep has also failed to remove exterior signs on the Ft. Collins Property which contain reproductions of Registered Mark No. 4,933,184.

4.39 Below is a true and correct copy of a photograph taken of the exterior

1 of the Ft. Collins Property on March 3, 2017:

9 4.40 The Red Lion mark on the Ft. Collins property is also readily visible 10 to guests and members of the public who can see the sign from the nearby state 11 highway.

12 4.41 Khan/Sleep has also failed to remove indicia bearing the Red Lion 13 Marks from the interior of the Ft. Collins Property, including signs, stationary, 14 printed material, supplies, brochures, and operating equipment.

15 4.42 Below are true and correct copies of photographs taken on March 3, 16 2017 from inside the Ft. Collins Property showing willful and intentional use of the 17 Red Lion Marks:

4.43 As depicted above, the Ft. Collins Property even has a placard in the lobby falsely proclaiming that "This Hotel is Independently Owned and Operated under a License from Red Lion Hotels Franchise, Inc."

1 4.44 True and correct copies of additional photographs of the Red Lion 2 Marks being commercially used at the Ft. Collins Property are attached hereto as 3 Exhibit H.

4 F. Defendants' Willful and Intentional Infringement of the Red Lion Marks
5 in Commerce Is Likely to Confuse and Deceive Consumers

6 4.45 The allegations and photographs herein show that Defendants' 7 properties are visually indistinguishable from an authorized and licensed Red Lion 8 hotel, but additional factors also increase the level of confusion and deception 9 among consumers.

10 4.46 For example, Denver International Airport is the 15th busiest airport in 11 the world with more than 53 million passengers traveling through the airport each 12 year. The Denver Property's close proximity to the airport means that massive 13 amounts of consumers will be deceived into thinking the Denver Property is an 14 authorized Red Lion hotel when, in fact, it is not.

15 4.47 The Ft. Collins Property is similarly situated near a transit route for 16 millions of consumers. It sits at a major interchange between Interstate 25 and 17 Colorado State Highway 14.

18 4.48 Interstate 25 is the only north-south interstate in the State of Colorado 19 and it is the main thoroughfare for Colorado's Front Range Urban Corridor which 1 is home to nearly 5 million people. In addition to drivers on Interstate 25, any of 2 Ft. Collins' 150,000 citizens can drive past the Ft. Collins Property and see the 3 large Red Lion signage.

4 4.49 Consumers passing by the Ft. Collins Property or staying at nearby 5 hotels would be deceived into believing it is an authorized Red Lion hotel when it 6 is not.

7 4.50 Additionally, both the Denver Property and the Ft. Collins Property 8 are holding themselves out to the public as "Red Lion" hotels.

9 4.51 When the Denver Property was reached by telephone on March 8, 10 2017, the call was answered "Red Lion Inn and Suites DIA."⁴

11 4.52 When the Ft. Collins Property was reached by telephone on March 8, 12 2017, the call was answered "Red Lion Inn."

13 4.53 Any consumers who reach these properties by phone would once 14 again be deceived into believing the properties are authorized Red Lion hotels, 15 which they are not.

 18 19 ⁴DIA is a common acronym for Denver International Airport.

4 (Lanham Act § 32, 15 U.S.C. § 1114)
5 Against All Defendants

6 5.1 Red Lion re-alleges and incorporates the allegations set forth in 7 paragraphs 1.1 to 4.53 as though set forth herein.

8 5.2 Red Lion owns valid trademark rights in the Red Lion Marks, as 9 registered with the USPTO under the Red Lion Registrations.

10 5.3 Defendants have used the Red Lion Marks in commerce in connection 11 with their hospitality services after January 5, 2017.

12 5.4 Defendants did not have authorization, license, or permission to use 13 the Red Lion Marks after January 5, 2017.

14 5.5 Defendants were notified of their terminated license, but nevertheless 15 willfully and intentionally used and continue to use the Red Lion Marks in 16 commerce.

17 5.6 Defendants' commercial uses of the Red Lion Marks are likely to 18 cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive consumers, in violation of the 19 Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1114.

20 5.7 The intentional nature of Defendants' acts complained of herein

¹ makes this an exceptional case under § 35(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1117(a).

3 5.8 By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff Red Lion has been and will 4 continue to be irreparably harmed and damaged. Red Lion's remedies at law are 5 inadequate to compensate for this harm.

Second Cause of Action

False Designation of Origin

(Lanham Act § 43, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a))

All Defendants

5.9 Red Lion re-alleges and incorporates the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1.1 to 5.8 as though set forth herein.

5.10 Defendants' unauthorized uses of the Red Lion Marks at the Denver Property and the Ft. Collins Property falsely indicate that Red Lion or its agents are connected with, sponsored, endorsed, authorized, or approved by, or affiliated with Defendants, or that Defendants are connected with, sponsored, endorsed, authorized, or approved by, or affiliated with Red Lion.

5.11 Defendants' unauthorized use of the Red Lion Marks in connection with Defendants' hotels is likely to cause, and/or has caused confusion, mistake or deception as to the source or affiliation of Defendants' goods or services.

5.12 Defendants' unauthorized use of the Red Lion Marks in connection with its goods and services permits Defendants to receive the benefit of Red Lion's

1 goodwill, which Red Lion has established at great labor and expense, and further 2 allows Defendants to gain acceptance of its goods and services, based not on its 3 own qualities but on the reputation, investment, hard work and goodwill of Red 4 Lion.

5 5.13 Defendants have not been granted authorization, license, or 6 permission to use the Red Lion Marks after January 5, 2017, and Defendants were 7 contractually prohibited from doing so.

8 5.14 The intentional nature of Defendants' acts complained of herein
9 makes this an exceptional case under § 35(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C.
10 §1117(a).

11 5.15 By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiff Red Lion has been and will 12 continue to be irreparably harmed and damaged. Red Lion's remedies at law are 13 inadequate to compensate for this harm and damage.

Third Cause of Action

Breach of Contract

(Washington State Law)

Against Tower Hospitality, Ghazanfar Khan, Zulfiqar Khan, and Mohammad Tafail Khan

17 5.16 Red Lion re-alleges and incorporates the allegations set forth in 18 paragraphs 1.1 to 5.15 as though set forth herein.

19 5.17 Red Lion and Tower Hospitality entered into a valid and enforceable

1 Franchise License Agreement in September 2012 regarding operation of the 2 Denver Property under the Red Lion brand.

3 5.18 Defendants Ghazanfar Khan, Zulfiqar Khan, and Mohammad Tafail
 4 Khan each personally guaranteed the performance of Tower Hospitality's 5 obligations under the Denver Agreement.

6 5.19 The Denver Agreement explicitly required that the Red Lion Marks 7 not be used in commerce if that agreement was terminated.

8 5.20 Red Lion terminated the Denver Agreement on January 5, 2017, after 9 Tower Hospitality, Ghazanfar Khan, Zulfiqar Khan, and Mohammad Tafail Khan 10 breached the agreement by failing to pay fees and dues owed to Red Lion.

11 5.21 Tower Hospitality, Ghazanfar Khan, Zulfiqar Khan, and Mohammad
